

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation (OSSTF/FEESO) are taking action to protect the quality of publicly-funded education in Ontario

#LecceFactCheck

Day in and day out we have seen that the information about education shared by the Ontario government can be incomplete and/or inaccurate.

THESE ARE THE FACTS.

Statement by Lecce	Reference/Source	Refuting Statement
Minister Stephen Lecce says they have made a major move on e-Learning, decreasing mandatory e-Learning credits from 4 to 2.	Queen's Park Press Conference, November 29, 2019.	e-Learning is currently voluntary. The government is still planning to make e-Learning a mandatory graduation requirement starting in September 2020.
Minister Lecce tweeted, "203 days and counting...OSSTF has yet to make any significant moves at the table. It takes two to tango to keep kids in class"	@sflece 4:28 PM · Twitter, Dec 2, 2019.	As of December 2, it had only been 62 days since we tabled our positions. They reflect what parents told the Ford government they want and they remain on the table to protect student learning.
Minister of Education, Stephen Lecce, says, "OSSTF has actually admitted there have not been layoffs."	CBC Ottawa Morning, December 4, 2019.	OSSTF/FEESO has repeatedly said that hundreds of teachers and education workers have been laid off this year, including dozens of laid off OSSTF/FEESO education workers who attended Question Period on October 28, 2019.
Minister of Education, Stephen Lecce, claims that, "Compensation for teachers have grown by 80%. 80% since 2003."	Queen's Park Press Conference, December 6, 2019.	From 2003–2018 OSSTF/FEESO teacher salaries increased by 31.7% while the Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased by 32.4% (OSSTF/FEESO and Stats Can).

Please contact your MPP and Trustees

See the entire #LecceFactCheck list and all the proposals at

BargainingForEducation.ca

Lend your support and email your MPP at

HereForStudents.ca

