

Women in Politics - Additional Activities – 1

Title of Activity	Gendered Language In Social Media Interviews With Politicians
Type of Activity	Any grade
Suggested Subjects / Courses	Gender studies, English, history, Equity and Social justice, Dynamics of human relationships
Description of activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Create a chart – electronic or hard copy - Examine twitter feeds, comments left by the public (at the end of published articles) and other social media platforms - Compare and contrast the language/description and focus of female politicians compare to male politicians - Discuss in small groups and then as a class - Is there a difference? What is the difference? What are the implications? - Has this affected/could this affect how many women enter the political arena? - Female politicians are more likely to table legislation that support women, children and families (Criado Perez, 2019, p. 265); what are the historical implications?/ What are the implications to future legislation?
Notes	