Application Form
Environmental Advisory Work Group

The role of the Environmental Advisory Work Group (EAWG) is to advise the Provincial Executive on any matters related to environmental issues within the Federation and any other matters that may be referred to it by the Provincial Executive. Members of the EAWG can serve concurrently on other OSSTF/FEESO Provincial Standing Committees or Councils.

Name and District:

Contact Information (email address and phone number):

A. Expertise – Please list examples below of experience and demonstrated knowledge that would benefit the work group.

Demonstrated Knowledge

B. Experience

Working with others in a collaborative manner – Please provide examples below:

Task Specific Experience – Please list any work groups/committees worked on.

C. Representativeness of Membership – Describe below how you are representative of the membership.