Section D:

Voluntary Self-Identification Form

This form is designed to collect demographic information as part of our clear commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion. The collection of demographic information is one of the priorities outlined in the Action Plan to Support Equity, Anti-Racism, and Anti-Oppression. This data will help in accountability, measurement and tracking. Your response is voluntary, and you may skip any question you do not wish to answer. The data collected will not be anonymous. Assigned Provincial Office staff and members of the Nominations Committee will have access to this information for the purposes of making recommendations about appointments and for promoting greater diversity within OSSTF/FEESO Committees and Councils.
